[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HAMP'FON, VA., March 2.—News reached here to-night of a sensational shooting aftray, which took place at Grafton, York county, this morning.
Leroy Amory, a prominent farmer, shot
and mortally wounded his brother,
Robert F. Amory.
Details are lacking, but it is said that the shooting was the result of bad feeling existing between the two brothers. It is reported that the sons of the wounded man have threatened
to wreak vengennee upon Lerg;

of the wounded man have threatened to wreak vengeance upon Lerg; Amory's family, and a serious family feud is expected.

A son of Lergy Amory came to Hampton to-night and secured the services of Fay S. Collier, a local attorney, to defend his father. Young Amory said his uncle was in a dying condition. He is shot over the right temple.

The Amories are among the most prominent people in York county, and it is asserted that excitement is run-ning high over the shooting.

Ante-Nuntial Reception.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., March 2.—A very pretty ante-nuntial reception was given lant evening by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. McDowell at their residence in North Street in honor of their daughter, Miss Alyne McDowell, and Mr. Rossel Edward Mitchell, whose marriage will be celebrated to-morrow afternoon. The residence was beautifully decorated with palms, ferhs and an abundance of pink carnations and pink sweetpess.

In the dining-room the color scheme green and pink, was attractively cargreen and pink, was attractively car-
